Summer Camp Teachers:

Sandra Fox - Math Teacher

Mrs. Fox taught math at Bloomfield Hills public schools for over 30 years. She created and sponsored the math club at Bloomfield Hills' East Hills middle school and led a group of students to participate in the annual district/state math competition for countless years.

As of June 18, 2010, Mrs. Fox retired from Bloomfield Hills Schools and she is looking forward to teaching math at OCC summer enrichment camp.

Mrs. Fox received her BS degree from Northern Michigan University.

Lee Cheng Lee - Visual Arts Teacher

Mrs. Lee teaches Chinese brush painting at the Rochester OPC Center and also at her own private studio. Mrs. Lee is excited to teach her specialty in Chinese brush painting at OCC summer enrichment camp.

Mrs. Lee received her BA degree from University of Texas, Arlington.

Sarah Morishita - Language Arts Teacher

Mrs. Morishita is currently a private teacher tutoring elementary students, middle school students as well as high school students in various subjects. Before moving to Michigan, Mrs. Morishita was a language arts teacher at Milwaukee public schools in 1997 and Illinois public schools from 1998 to 2005.

Mrs. Morishita received her BS degree from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh.

Dr. Jennifer Tsui - Science Teacher

Jennifer is currently teaching human anatomy and physiology at St. Clair County Community College. She spent a few years researching the development of the visual system at University of Montreal. In spite of her very busy schedule working in Detroit to help out the community this summer, Jennifer is looking forward to teaching various subjects in science at OCC summer enrichment camp.

Jennifer received her PhD degree in neuroscience from Stanford University.
